President: The Reverend Atalie Gaines

Procession: NEH 332 – All hail the power of Jesu's name

Readings: 1 Samuel 3:1-10 (11-20) p 274 read by Anne Throup
The moving story of the call of Samuel to the service of God as the great prophet in Israel is a familiar model of the mystery of God's call to us, whatever form it takes.
Revelation 5:1-10; p 1237 read by Anne Throup Revelation, set in heaven, tells us about our own lives. The picture here is one of unbearable tension. Will the scroll (and so its vital meaning) ever be opened? Will God ever make his truth known? Jesus performs the deed, and our salvation can take its course.

Gradual: Psalm 139

Gospel: John 1:43-end p 1064 read by the Revd. Atalie Gaines
This is John's story of the call by Jesus of early followers. He refers at the end to the story in Genesis of Jacob's ladder linking earth and heaven. Jesus is the true 'ladder' fulfilling that very role.

Almighty God,
in Christ you make all things new:
transform the poverty of our nature by the riches of your grace, and in the renewal of our lives
make known your heavenly glory;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Post Communion prayer

God of glory,
you nourish us with your Word
who is the bread of life:
fill us with your Holy Spirit that through us the light of your glory may shine in all the world.
We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen
