

Church of King Charles the Martyr

NOTICES

Sunday 11 October 2020
18 Sunday after Trinity

Welcome, if this is your first time with us, please introduce yourself to the church family. If you are joining us in person the words you need to take part in our services will be on the screen or you will be given a booklet – this is yours please take it away with you and bring it back when you return.

If you are joining us online the words for the services can be found on the bottom of the homepage of our website.

There are some changes to our worship due to the Coronavirus pandemic: please read the guidance below carefully.

Coronavirus precautions

We want you to feel safe and comfortable worshipping here, so we have put some precautions in place, following advice from the Government and the Church of England Authorities. Please follow these for the wellbeing of all our worshippers and visitors.

- Please keep at least 2 meters wherever possible from people with whom you do not live, and only sit adjacent to other members of your household, leaving 3 seats between you and the next household.
- Unless you have an exemption face coverings must be worn in church, with some exceptions for those with a role in liturgy.
- Please remove your face covering and sanitise your hands before coming forward for communion.
- Please sanitise your hands when you arrive in church and when you leave. If you use the toilet, please wash your hands thoroughly afterwards.
- Please sign in and make use of the QR code to scan in on the NHS App when coming to either the halls or church
- We are not taking a collection during our services. We very much need and value your support, if you wish to make a contribution to the life and mission of this church please leave it in the plate at the back, use our contactless machine or donate via the button on our website.
- Holy Communion will be given in one kind only (the host- bread) and will be given into your hands. Please remove your mask and keep social distance from the person in front of you when the steward directs you forward to receive and return to your seat by the side aisle.

- After the service please leave a kneeler on your seat, this is to place the seat out of use for the next service.

Like everyone, we are learning as we go and we welcome constructive comments: if you have any particular concerns, or suggestions, please so speak to the priest or church wardens who will be happy to help you.

Notices

NHS Covid App Please be encouraged to download the new app to help with contact tracing. <https://www.covid19.nhs.uk/> It can be accessed via this website or by going to the App store or Google Play.

QR Codes We have received QR codes for both the church and the halls. These will enable those using our facilities to 'scan in' as they arrive and will help with contact tracing if needed.

It is still vital that you sign in when you attend church so that we can contact you if there is a local outbreak.

Tidying the churchyard Saturday 24th Oct 10 am. As you may have noticed the shrubs around the church need cutting back. There are 6 separate beds that need doing, all well separated, so 1 bed per household is a Covid safe way to do this. Please volunteer to do a bed, you do not need much more than secateurs / shears and if you can, take the pruning's away. The main workday will be Sat 24th Oct 10 am, but you can do your bed any time. Please contact John Rowley, email or use KCM WhatsApp group so John can coordinate work.

Traidcraft Peter Samson has an account with the Fairtrade dealers Traidcraft www.traidcraft.co.uk He would like to offer you the opportunity to purchase items from them and KCM will benefit financially from anything you buy! Now is a good time to start thinking about Christmas presents!

Have a look at <https://www.traidcraftshop.co.uk/> and let Peter know what you'd like. You can phone him or email him with your order and arrange how you can pay him at the same time. Please do have a look and support us and Fairtrade suppliers.

Safety at home. As the nights draw in please be aware of an increase of burglaries in Potters Bar. Please keep your doors and windows shut. Make sure that gates are secured. We are also hearing reports of more telephone and online crime – please be careful when receiving cold calls or emails that appear to ask for your banking details.

Churches Together Potters Bar Saturday prayers will start again on Saturday 7 November at 8.30am by zoom. More info about how to join will be forthcoming from the new CTPB committee in due course.

Community News. Whilst the team were unable to publish an edition earlier in the year they hope to be able to get an Autumn edition out and have updated their website with more information about Potters Bar

Oak Hill College

Thank you for new equipment. We have invested in a new camera to help us stream our acts of worship. The funds from the Bike and Hike and several generous donations have helped us to fund this. We are very grateful to all who have assisted in getting our services online. Our thanks must especially go to Phil Townsend for researching the equipment and David Thomson for keeping the website updated.

Please do let us know if things are not working as they should. As with all our new ways of working at the moment sometimes things do go astray, and we'd welcome the opportunity to put them right as soon as possible.

Trailer for Sale. When Act4 was wound up they had a number of items that needed to be disposed of. They had a trailer which now needs to be moved from where it is stored. If you would be interested (or know someone who would) these are the details. Trailer box: 2.08 long, 1.08 wide, 0.95 deep. Overall (approx 3m long, 1.5 wide, 1.5m high. Looks almost as good as new Comparable size, second-hand trailer on GT Towing site for £1,295. Please contact Roger for more info or to make an offer rmt.chrysalis@gmail.com

Food Bank needs in the coming weeks are Meat and fish tins, Toilet paper, Kitchen towels, Pasta sauce, Fruit tins, Laundry pods, Washing up liquid, Toothpaste, Toothbrushes, Biscuits <https://pottersbar.foodbank.org.uk/>

The collection boxes for the Potters Bar Food Bank are outside the vicarage, in the Link corridor and in the porch as you enter church.
Thank you for all that you have donated thus far and for all those who are going to act as drivers to take our offering to the foodbank

Prayer

If you or someone you know is in need of prayer please contact Revd Atalie to have a chat and for your name to be added to her private prayers or to the list that is published each week.

Please pray for ALL members of our community, especially:

Those who live in: Aberdale Gardens, Allandale Crescent, The Approach.

The recently departed: Margaret Bray and all those who have died in the past week.

Anniversary of death: all those whose anniversary falls at this time

Please pray for members of our church family.

We especially pray for Nikki and Hannah as they welcome new members into their families and pray for all those who love, care and support families.

My funeral plans. Funerals can be on our minds for all sorts of reasons. If you are thinking about sorting out your own funeral service plan, this webpage from the Church of England offers guidance on how to do that, and how it can really help your family when the time comes. If you would like to talk this through, please call Revd Atalie for a chat.

Readings for the Eighteenth Sunday after Trinity

Collect

Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us your gift of faith that, forsaking what lies behind and reaching out to that which is before, we may run the way of your commandments
and win the crown of everlasting joy;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Exodus 32.1–14

32 When the people saw that Moses delayed to come down from the mountain, the people gathered around Aaron and said to him, ‘Come, make gods for us, who shall go before us; as for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.’² Aaron said to them, ‘Take off the gold rings that are on the ears of your wives, your sons, and your daughters, and bring them to me.’³ So all the people took off the gold rings from their ears, and brought them to Aaron.⁴ He took the gold from them, formed it in a mould, and cast an image of a calf; and they said, ‘These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!’⁵ When Aaron saw this, he built an altar before it; and Aaron made proclamation and said, ‘Tomorrow shall be a festival to the Lord.’⁶ They rose early the next day, and offered burnt-offerings and brought sacrifices of well-being; and the people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to revel.

⁷ The Lord said to Moses, ‘Go down at once! Your people, whom you brought up out of the land of Egypt, have acted perversely; ⁸ they have been quick to turn aside from the way that I commanded them; they have cast for themselves an image of a calf, and have worshipped it and sacrificed to it, and said, “These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!”’⁹ The Lord said to Moses, ‘I have seen this people, how stiff-necked they are. ¹⁰ Now let me alone, so that my wrath may burn hot against them and I may consume them; and of you I will make a great nation.’

¹¹ But Moses implored the Lord his God, and said, ‘O Lord, why does your wrath burn hot against your people, whom you brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand? ¹² Why should the Egyptians say, “It was with evil intent that he brought them out to kill them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth”? Turn from your fierce wrath; change your mind and do not bring disaster on your people. ¹³ Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, your servants, how you swore to them by your own self, saying to them, “I will multiply your descendants like the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have promised I will give to your descendants, and they shall inherit it for ever.” ¹⁴ And the Lord changed his mind about the disaster that he planned to bring on his people.

Philippians 4.1–9

¹ Therefore, my brothers and sisters, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord in this way, my beloved.

² I urge Euodia and I urge Syntyche to be of the same mind in the Lord. ³ Yes, and I ask you also, my loyal companion, help these women, for they have struggled beside me in the work of the gospel, together with Clement and the rest of my co-workers, whose names are in the book of life.

⁴ Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. ⁵ Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. ⁶ Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. ⁷ And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

⁸ Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honourable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. ⁹ Keep on doing the things that you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you.

Matthew 22.1–14

22 Once more Jesus spoke to them in parables, saying: ² ‘The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a wedding banquet for his son. ³ He sent his slaves to call those who had been invited to the wedding banquet, but they would not come. ⁴ Again he sent other slaves, saying, “Tell those who have been invited: Look, I have prepared my dinner, my oxen and my fat calves have been slaughtered, and everything is ready; come to the wedding banquet.” ⁵

But they made light of it and went away, one to his farm, another to his business, ⁶ while the rest seized his slaves, maltreated them, and killed them. ⁷ The king was enraged. He sent his troops, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. ⁸ Then he said to his slaves, “The wedding is ready, but those invited were not worthy. ⁹ Go therefore into the main streets, and invite everyone you find to the wedding banquet.” ¹⁰ Those slaves went out into the streets and gathered all whom they found, both good and bad; so the wedding hall was filled with guests.

¹¹ ‘But when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not wearing a wedding robe, ¹² and he said to him, “Friend, how did you get in here without a wedding robe?” And he was speechless. ¹³ Then the king said to the attendants, “Bind him hand and foot, and throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.” ¹⁴ For many are called, but few are chosen.’

Post Communion

We praise and thank you, O Christ, for this sacred feast:
for here we receive you,
here the memory of your passion is renewed,
here our minds are filled with grace,
and here a pledge of future glory is given,
when we shall feast at that table where you reign with all your saints for ever.

Looking forward

Fundraising Ideas

Have you got any good ideas of how we can raise funds?

In the coming weeks and months we are going to have to purchase new tech equipment for the church and we could have a little fun on the way - what could we do? Put your thinking caps on and let Revd Atalie know.

Christmas Bazaar is one of our biggest annual fundraisers and we are going to have to think laterally about how we are able to raise funds during November. If you have any ideas please speak to John and Joy Rowley.

80th Anniversary of the Dedication of the Church Building 2021.

We are starting to look towards our 80th Anniversary in 2021. We will celebrate over the weekend of Saturday 10 and Sunday 11 July 2021 and need your help. I have had one offer of help but we need more if we are going to make this weekend a success. Revd Atalie
