

Church of King Charles the Martyr

NOTICES

Sunday 18 October 2020
Luke the Evangelist

Welcome, if this is your first time with us, please introduce yourself to the church family. If you are joining us in person the words you need to take part in our services will be on the screen or you will be given a booklet – this is yours please take it away with you and bring it back when you return. If you are joining us online the words for the services can be found on the bottom of the homepage of our website.

“Spring forward, Fall back”

Don't forget next weekend to turn your clock back one hour on Sunday 25 October.

From November

We will return to one service at 1030 on a Sunday morning.

The proposal from the PCC meeting 29 September 2020 was that we keep a pattern of one Sunday morning service at a regular time during this winter period and offer our two styles of services on alternate Sunday's with the fifth Sunday being a joint service.

1030 each Sunday alternating the style of worship

- 1st and 3rd Morning Worship Eucharist
- 2nd and 4th Sung Eucharist with the choir and organ
- 5th Sunday's will be a joint service of Holy communion

Please do make a note of these dates in your diary.

All are welcome to any service.

There are some changes to our worship due to the Coronavirus pandemic: please read the guidance below carefully.

Coronavirus precautions

We want you to feel safe and comfortable worshipping here, so we have put some precautions in place, following advice from the Government and the Church of England Authorities. Please follow these for the wellbeing of all our worshippers and visitors.

- Please keep at least 2 meters wherever possible from people with whom you do not live, and only sit adjacent to other members of your household, leaving 3 seats between you and the next household.
- Unless you have an exemption face coverings must be worn in church, with some exceptions for those with a role in liturgy.
- Please remove your face covering and sanitise your hands before coming forward for communion.
- Please sanitise your hands when you arrive in church and when you leave. If you use the toilet, please wash your hands thoroughly afterwards.
- Please sign in and make use of the QR code to scan in on the NHS App when coming to either the halls or church
- We are not taking a collection during our services. We very much need and value your support, if you wish to make a contribution to the life and mission of this church please leave it in the plate at the back, use our contactless machine or donate via the button on our website.
- Holy Communion will be given in one kind only (the host- bread) and will be given into your hands. Please remove your mask and keep social distance from the person in front of you when the steward directs you forward to receive and return to your seat by the side aisle.
- If there is to be a second service in the church on the day that you attend please leave a kneeler on your seat, this is to place the seat out of use for the next service.

Like everyone, we are learning as we go and we welcome constructive comments: if you have any particular concerns, or suggestions, please so speak to the priest or church wardens who will be happy to help you.

Thank you

Thankyou. To all those who donated to the Bike and Hikers (and thank you to our fundraisers, Bikers and Hikers). We think that we have raised over £800 which is divided between the Historic Churches Trust and our own funds.

Thank you from Janet Turner for the support and prayers going out for Peter and family, much appreciated.

Thank you from Peter Sansom. Chris' back is greatly improved and we thank everyone for their prayers.

Legacy The PCC is pleased to report that KCM has recently received a legacy from the late Madeleine Butterworth, who, as most of you will know, was Church Warden and faithful servant of this church for many years, and died earlier this year.

Thank you We have invested in a new camera to help us stream our acts of worship. The funds from the Bike and Hike and several generous donations have helped us to fund this. We are very grateful to all who have assisted in getting our services online. Our thanks must especially go to Phil Townsend for researching the equipment and David Thomson for keeping the website updated.

Notices

Today we welcome Revd Hugh Wikner to lead our services.

Tidying the churchyard Saturday 24th Oct 10 am. As you may have noticed the shrubs around the church need cutting back. There are 6 separate beds that need doing, all well separated, so 1 bed per household is a Covid safe way to do this. Please volunteer to do a bed, you do not need much more than secateurs / shears and if you can, take the pruning's away. The main workday will be Sat 24th Oct 10 am, but you can do your bed any time. Please contact John Rowley, email or use KCM WhatsApp group so John can coordinate work.

NHS Covid App Please be encouraged to download the new app to help with contact tracing. <https://www.covid19.nhs.uk/> It can be accessed via this website or by going to the App store or Google Play.

QR Codes We have received QR codes for both the church and the halls. These will enable those using our facilities to 'scan in' as they arrive and will help with contact tracing if needed.

It is still vital that you sign in when you attend church so that we can contact you if there is a local outbreak.

PCC meetings. The PCC will meet on Tuesday 27 October and Wednesday 2 December as we work to navigate our church through these difficult times. For the time being these meetings will continue to be held online to adhere to social distancing, the rule of six and to keep those who are vital to keeping the church running in good health.

Please make every effort to attend – as elected members of the church council your voice helps us make informed decisions about how we move forward and is even more important in these difficult days. You can join us either on zoom or via the telephone link.

There is one vacancy on the PCC and two vacancies for representatives on Deanery Synod – for our voice to be heard in the wider church we really need to fill these vacancies.

Please do speak to any current member of the PCC or Revd Atalie if you would like to join us in moving this community forward in its mission and ministry in Potters bar.

Traidcraft Peter Samson has an account with the Fairtrade dealers Traidcraft www.traidcraft.co.uk He would like to offer you the opportunity to purchase items from them and KCM will benefit financially from anything you buy! Now is a good time to start thinking about Christmas presents! Have a look at <https://www.traidcraftshop.co.uk/> and let Peter know what you'd like. You can phone him or email him with your order and arrange how you can pay him at the same time. Please do have a look and support us and Fairtrade suppliers.

Safety at home. As the nights draw in please be aware of an increase of burglaries in Potters Bar. Please keep your doors and windows shut. Make sure that gates are secured. We are also hearing reports of more telephone and online crime – please be careful when receiving cold calls or emails that appear to ask for your banking details.

Churches Together Potters Bar Saturday prayers will start again on Saturday 7 November at 8.30am by zoom. More info about how to join will be forthcoming from the new CTPB committee in due course.

Community News. Whilst the team were unable to publish an edition earlier in the year they hope to be able to get an Autumn edition out and have updated their website with more information about Potters Bar www.pottersbarcommunitynews.co.uk

Vocations morning Saturday morning, 7th November

Have you been wondering where to go next in your journey with God? Our Diocesan Vocations event will take place on Saturday morning, 7th November. It is aimed at anyone who is reflecting on God's call in their life, whether that may be to a role within our church community or to a wider ministry. Following a keynote address from Bishop Richard there will be a range of short introductory talks from ordained and lay ministers, a chaplain and a lay person with opportunities to ask questions of each of them.

The event is free but we do need people to register via Eventbrite <https://willyoutakehiscall2020.eventbrite.co.uk/>.

My funeral plans. Funerals can be on our minds for all sorts of reasons. If you are thinking about sorting out your own funeral service plan, this webpage from the Church of England offers guidance on how to do that, and how it can really help your family when the time comes. If you would like to talk this through, please call Revd Atalie for a chat.

Readings for the feast of St Luke the Evangelist

Collect

O God, forasmuch as without you
we are not able to please you;
mercifully grant that your Holy Spirit
may in all things direct and rule our hearts;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Isaiah 45.1–7

45 Thus says the Lord to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have grasped
to subdue nations before him
and strip kings of their robes,
to open doors before him—
and the gates shall not be closed:
<sup>2</sup> I will go before you
and level the mountains,
I will break in pieces the doors of bronze
and cut through the bars of iron, <sup>3</sup> I will give you the treasures of darkness
and riches hidden in secret places,
so that you may know that it is I, the Lord,
the God of Israel, who call you by your name.
<sup>4</sup> For the sake of my servant Jacob,
and Israel my chosen,
I call you by your name,
I surname you, though you do not know me.
<sup>5</sup> I am the Lord, and there is no other;
besides me there is no god.
I arm you, though you do not know me,
<sup>6</sup> so that they may know, from the rising of the sun and from the west, that there is no one besides me;
I am the Lord, and there is no other.
<sup>7</sup> I form light and create darkness,

I make weal and create woe;
I the Lord do all these things.

|| Let the heavens rejoice and let the earth be glad; ◆

I Thessalonians 1.1–10

To the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:
Grace to you and peace.

<sup>2</sup> We always give thanks to God for all of you and mention you in our prayers, constantly <sup>3</sup> remembering before our God and Father your work of faith and labour of love and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>4</sup> For we know, brothers and sisters beloved by God, that he has chosen you, <sup>5</sup> because our message of the gospel came to you not in word only, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with full conviction; just as you know what kind of people we proved to be among you for your sake. <sup>6</sup> And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, for in spite of persecution you received the word with joy inspired by the Holy Spirit, <sup>7</sup> so that you became an example to all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia. <sup>8</sup> For the word of the Lord has sounded forth from you not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but in every place where your faith in God has become known, so that we have no need to speak about it. <sup>9</sup> For the people of those regions report about us what kind of welcome we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols, to serve a living and true God, <sup>10</sup> and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead—Jesus, who rescues us from the wrath that is coming.

Matthew 22.15–22

<sup>15</sup> Then the Pharisees went and plotted to entrap him in what he said. <sup>16</sup> So they sent their disciples to him, along with the Herodians, saying, ‘Teacher, we know that you are sincere, and teach the way of God in accordance with truth, and show deference to no one; for you do not regard people with partiality. <sup>17</sup> Tell us, then, what you think. Is it lawful to pay taxes to the emperor, or not?’ <sup>18</sup> But Jesus, aware of their malice, said, ‘Why are you putting me to the test, you hypocrites? <sup>19</sup> Show me the coin used for the tax.’ And they brought him a denarius. <sup>20</sup> Then he said to them, ‘Whose head is this, and whose title?’ <sup>21</sup> They answered, 'The emperor's.' Then he said to them, 'Give therefore to the emperor the things that are the emperor's, and to God the things that are God's.' <sup>22</sup> When they heard this, they were amazed; and they left him and went away.

Post Communion

Holy and blessed God,
you have fed us with the body and blood of your Son
and filled us with your Holy Spirit:
may we honour you,
not only with our lips
but in lives dedicated to the service of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Looking forward Fundraising Ideas

Have you got any good ideas of how we can raise funds?

In the coming weeks and months we are going to have to purchase new tech equipment for the church and we could have a little fun on the way - what could we do? Put your thinking caps on and let Revd Atalie know.

Christmas Bazaar is one of our biggest annual fundraisers and we are going to have to think laterally about how we are able to raise funds during November. If you have any ideas please speak to John and Joy Rowley.

80th Anniversary of the Dedication of the Church Building 2021.
