Readings for Sunday 18 April

Third Sunday of Easter

Collect

Almighty Father, who in your great mercy gladdened the disciples with the sight of the risen Lord:
give us such knowledge of his presence with us,
that we may be strengthened and sustained by his risen life
and serve you continually in righteousness and truth;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Acts 3.12–19

¹² When Peter saw it, he addressed the people, ‘You Israelites, why do you wonder at this, or why do you stare at us, as though by our own power or piety we had made him walk? ¹³ The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our ancestors has glorified his servant Jesus, whom you handed over and rejected in the presence of Pilate, though he had decided to release him. ¹⁴ But you rejected the Holy and Righteous One and asked to have a murderer given to you, ¹⁵ and you killed the Author of life, whom God raised from the dead. To this we are witnesses. ¹⁶ And by faith in his name, his name itself has made this man strong, whom you see and know; and the faith that is through Jesus has given him this perfect health in the presence of all of you.

¹⁷ ‘And now, friends, I know that you acted in ignorance, as did also your rulers. ¹⁸ In this way God fulfilled what he had foretold through all the prophets, that his Messiah would suffer. ¹⁹ Repent therefore, and turn to God so that your sins may be wiped out,

Psalm 4

- 1 Answer me when I call, O God of my righteousness; •
you set me at liberty when I was in trouble;
have mercy on me and hear my prayer.
- 2 How long will you nobles dishonour my glory; •

- how long will you love vain things and seek after falsehood?
- 3 But know that the Lord has shown me his marvellous kindness; •
when I call upon the Lord, he will hear me.
- 4 Stand in awe, and sin not; • commune with your own heart upon your bed, and be still.
- 5 Offer the sacrifices of righteousness • and put your trust in the Lord.
- 6 There are many that say, ‘Who will show us any good?’ • Lord, lift up the light of your countenance upon us.
- 7 You have put gladness in my heart, •
more than when their corn and wine and oil increase.
- 8 In peace I will lie down and sleep, •
for it is you Lord, only, who make me dwell in safety.

I John 3.1–7

3¹ See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. ² Beloved, we are God’s children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. ³ And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

⁴ Everyone who commits sin is guilty of lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. ⁵ You know that he was revealed to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. ⁶ No one who abides in him sins; no one who sins has either seen him or known him. ⁷ Little children, let no one deceive you. Everyone who does what is right is righteous, just as he is righteous.

Luke 24.36b–48

³⁶ While they were talking about this, Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, ‘Peace be with you.’ ³⁷ They were startled and terrified, and thought that they were seeing a ghost. ³⁸ He said to them, ‘Why are you frightened, and why do doubts arise in your hearts? ³⁹ Look at my hands and my feet; see that it is I myself. Touch me and see; for a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have.’ ⁴⁰ And when he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. ⁴¹ While in their joy they were disbelieving and still wondering, he said to them, ‘Have you anything here to eat?’⁴² They gave him a piece of broiled fish,⁴³ and he took it and ate in their presence.

⁴⁴ Then he said to them, ‘These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you—that everything written about me in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms must be fulfilled.’⁴⁵ Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures,⁴⁶ and he said to them, ‘Thus it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day,⁴⁷ and that repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem.⁴⁸ You are witnesses of these things.

Post Communion

Living God,
your Son made himself known to his disciples
in the breaking of bread:
open the eyes of our faith,
that we may see him in all his redeeming work;
who is alive and reigns, now and for ever.

David Howell. We are very sad to inform you that Dave passed away 00:45 on Sunday 11th April. We are thankful that we were able to be by his side throughout Saturday, until the end. He was unlucky that an infection in his lungs affected his heart, eventually resulting in pneumonia.

Dave was a wonderful, happy, funny, lovely man who has left a huge gap in our lives. We will miss him terribly but know that he is at peace.

After 20 years' service, Canon Pope says: "It has been a real privilege to serve the three hundred and thirty nine parishes as chief officer of this diocese under two bishops and four Chairs of the Diocesan Board of Finance."

Church of England backs VaccinAid campaign to 'Give the World a Shot' to help defeat Covid-19 and to help fund the biggest vaccination drive in history.

Led by UNICEF UK, it aims to help fund almost two billion Covid-19 vaccines for health workers and the most high risk and vulnerable people on our planet. The money raised will also help UNICEF provide tests and treatments to people in 190 countries around the world through the global COVAX initiative.

Bishop Michael Beasley, the Bishop of Hertford and an epidemiologist, who played a key role in helping set up the campaign, said: “Covid-19 has affected us all - every home, family, school, business and community all around the world.

“And because of the way this virus works we know that it won’t be over for anyone until it’s over for everyone. That’s why I’ve been delighted to throw my support behind VaccinAid. It offers each of us the opportunity to play our individual part in bringing this world wide epidemic to an end. If, like me, you’ve had your jab, you’ll know the feeling of relief, gratitude and thankfulness that happens when you’ve been protected from COVID. I’d love the whole world to experience that feeling and protection too. So let’s give the world a shot!”

For more information on the campaign go to www.vaccinaid.org to donate or begin fundraising.

In the past 12 months our outdoor spaces and places have mattered to us more than ever before. So join us and show some love for those special places that helped us through lockdown.

Sacristy. The sacristy team is looking for new members to serve and to assist behind the scenes – could you do the washing and ironing once a month? Could you join the team to serve at the altar on a rota? Training will be given.

Thank you to our crafters, and to Jenny for masterminding the crafters in our community. Over Easter they raised £210 with knitted and crocheted Easter animals and cakes.

April 1941, the partly built church, mostly repaired after being damaged by bombs which fell in Elm Court grounds in February.

I would like to thank our many kind friends who by letter, 'phone and calling have expressed their sorrow for the damage which the Church sustained some weeks ago, most of which has now been repaired. We should feel very proud that our Church has been allowed to suffer with its children; after all, that is as it should be. On the Sunday following a Solemn Te Deum was sung after the Eucharist as an act of thanksgiving to our Heavenly Father for His protection to the Church and the district.
