COMING BACK TO CHURCH SAFELY:

With the restrictions being lifted the Vicar, Wardens and PCC are working hard to ensure that we can welcome you back into church safely. Bishop Alan urges us all to “Be aware of the risks to ourselves and others and seek to minimise them.”

We will still have hand sanitiser, encourage you to sign in and to wear a face covering when in proximity to others (although none of this is now a legal requirement).

We ask that if you wish to social distance and not sing that you sit towards the back of the church.

Please begin to think about how you feel about coming back to church as restrictions lift. We look forward, when you feel ready, welcoming you back!

Readings for Sunday 25 July James the Apostle

Collect

Merciful God, whose holy apostle Saint James, leaving his father and all that he had,
was obedient to the calling of your Son Jesus Christ and followed him even to death:
help us, forsaking the false attractions of the world,
to be ready at all times to answer your call without delay;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Jeremiah 45.1–5

45 The word that the prophet Jeremiah spoke to Baruch son of Neriah, when he wrote these words in a scroll at the dictation of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of King Jehoiakim son of Josiah of Judah: ² Thus says the Lord, the God of Israel, to you, O Baruch: ³ You said, 'Woe is me! The Lord has added sorrow to my pain; I am weary with my groaning, and I find no rest.' ⁴ Thus you shall say to him, 'Thus says the Lord: I am going to break down what I have built, and pluck up what I have planted—that is, the whole land. ⁵ And you, do you seek great things for yourself? Do not seek them; for I am going to bring disaster upon all flesh, says the Lord; but I will give you your life as a prize of war in every place to which you may go.'

Psalms 126

- 1 When the Lord restored the fortunes of Zion, •
then were we like those who dream.
- 2 Then was our mouth filled with laughter •
and our tongue with songs of joy.
- 3 Then said they among the nations, •
'The Lord has done great things for them.'
- 4 The Lord has indeed done great things for us, •
and therefore we rejoiced.
- 5 Restore again our fortunes, O Lord, •
as the river beds of the desert.
- 6 Those who sow in tears •
shall reap with songs of joy.
- 7 Those who go out weeping, bearing the seed, • will come back with shouts of joy, bearing their sheaves with them.

2 Corinthians 4.7–15

⁷ But we have this treasure in clay jars, so that it may be made clear that this extraordinary power belongs to God and does not come from us. ⁸ We are afflicted in every way, but not crushed; perplexed, but not driven to despair; ⁹ persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed; ¹⁰ always carrying in the body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be made visible in our bodies. ¹¹ For while we live, we are always being given up to death for Jesus' sake, so that the life of Jesus may be made visible in our mortal flesh. ¹² So death is at work in us, but life in you.

¹³ But just as we have the same spirit of faith that is in accordance with scripture—'I believed, and so I spoke'—we also believe, and so we speak, ¹⁴ because we know that the one who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus, and will bring us with you into his presence. ¹⁵ Yes, everything is for your sake, so that grace, as it extends to more and more people, may increase thanksgiving, to the glory of God.

Matthew 20.20–28

²⁰ Then the mother of the sons of Zebedee came to him with her sons, and kneeling before him, she asked a favour of him. ²¹ And he said to her, 'What do you want?' She said to him, 'Declare that these two sons of mine will sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your kingdom.' ²² But Jesus answered, 'You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I am about to drink?' They said to him, 'We are able.' ²³ He said to them, 'You will indeed drink my cup, but to sit at my right hand and at my left, this is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared by my Father.'

²⁴ When the ten heard it, they were angry with the two brothers. ²⁵ But Jesus called them to him and said, 'You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones are tyrants over them. ²⁶ It will not be so among you; but whoever wishes to be great among you must be your servant, ²⁷ and whoever wishes to be first among you must be your slave; ²⁸ just as the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many.'

Post Communion

Almighty God, who on the day of Pentecost sent your Holy Spirit to the apostles with the wind from heaven and in tongues of flame, filling them with joy and boldness to preach the gospel: by the power of the same Spirit strengthen us to witness to your truth and to draw everyone to the fire of your love; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Lord God, the source of truth and love, keep us faithful to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, united in prayer and the breaking of bread, and one in joy and simplicity of heart, in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Prayer -Week beginning 25 July 2021

We invite you to pray with our pastoral care group each week on a Wednesday morning. No matter where you are, you are encouraged to pray for our community, our town and the wellbeing of all.

Please pray for ALL members of our community, especially: we give thanks for the Revd Mark Maloney and his wife the Revd Fiona Maloney who have been licensed at Christ Church Little Heath this week, and we pray for Joel Mercer the Baptist minister as his ministry takes him to Whitely Bay, his last service is today.

Those who live in: The Broadway, Brooklands Gardens, Cambridge Drive,

The recently departed: Anne Alexander and all those who have died in the past week.

Anniversary of death: Joyce Niblett, Ethel Turner, Joan Twallin, Roy Powell and all those whose anniversary falls at this time

If you or someone you know is in need of prayer please contact Revd Atalie to have a chat and for your name to be added to her private prayers or to the list that is published each week. This list is regularly reviewed, and people added, moved or removed as required. If you are not on the list and would like to be added, or if you or a loved one are, but feel that this is no longer needed, please do let Revd Atalie know.

My funeral plans and bereavement. The Church of England has lots of resources for planning your funeral or coping with bereavement. If you would like to talk this through, please call Revd Atalie. <https://www.churchofengland.org/life-events/funerals/my-funeral-plans>

Please no other donations for the time being.

Whilst other donations are appreciated, they are short of storage space, so please consider carefully what you can contribute.

The Foodbank is also in need of funds to help to pay for their storage space which costs £120 a month. Donations can be made through their webpage.

<https://pottersbar.foodbank.org.uk/>

The collection boxes for the Potters Bar Food Bank are outside the vicarage and in the Link corridor outside the office.

Notices

As the Halls reopen and become busier, we are in need of an occasional caretaker. We do not allow any lifting of furniture and is mainly a supervisory role at the beginning and end of an ad-hoc booking. Please speak to Lynn or email her at halls@ for further details. (Good rates of pay!!!)

Sunday 15 August we will baptise and welcome Enid Edwards into our church family at 1030. At 930 there will be a said service of Communion.

Exhibition of photographs/artefacts that occupied us during lockdown. Our thanks to Judith Reeve for collating this exhibition of things that we have been up to in the last year.

Exhibition of the past 80 years. Do come and visit the exhibition in the baptistery to find out how our community has changed over the last 80 years. Many thanks to John Rowley for his work delving into the archives.

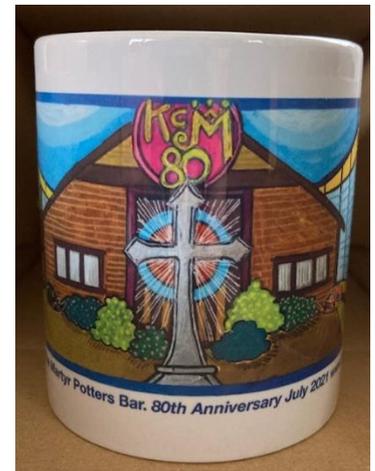

Windowsill Flowers. Our thanks to all the groups and organisations who have decorated a windowsill for us for our celebrations.

Churches Together in Potters Bar, Summer Holiday Club please PRAY for God's blessing on the day. If you can help in anyway, please email shaunlennard@rcdow.org.uk as soon as possible.

Please also reserve the date 22 – 26 August 2022 which is the date for next year's Holiday Club – planning will start in September!

Celebration mugs. Our thanks to Rebekah Quantrill Tozer (cousin of Helen Schmitz) who has designed the image for our celebration and to Bill for organising the mugs! The mugs will be displayed in church and online over the next couple of weeks. If you would like one or two but can't yet get to church we can deliver them to you – just email let Bill know churchwarden2@kcm-church.org.uk We are suggesting a donation of £8 to cover costs and to make a small profit for church funds.

Other examples of Rebekah's work can be seen here <https://www.beguilingbeeemporium.co.uk/meet-the-makers/>

Spaces still available Holiday Club Afternoon with activities for primary-school-aged children on Saturday 7th August 2021 from 1.30 – 5.30pm at Pope Paul School in Baker Street.

To book please go to <https://cclh.churchsuite.com/events/4ydtlykl>

Adoramus needs your help! Adoramus is unique as a Christian choir and orchestra in North London seeking to share their faith through their music-making and concerts. Like everyone else, we will have been affected by the pandemic, but when we resume rehearsing again, we hope that there will be a good number of people looking for new opportunities to share their faith. So please could you help us by raising awareness of who we are and what we do by sharing this video with your members to help us attract singers of a good standard who want to use their talents in a missional context. Introducing you to the Adoramus Choir. Nicki Hooke introducing you to the Adoramus Choir 2021 - YouTube

Supporting the work and mission of this church

The Church of King Charles the Martyr provides a spiritual focus and outstanding facilities for the local community. It is OUR church and like all charities, is dependent on the generosity of its members, the local community and others.

If you would like to make a donation towards the work of the Church of King Charles the Martyr, either as a one off or would like to join our regular giving scheme these are the ways that you can donate

- by speaking to our Treasurer to set up regular giving to help us plan

- by tapping the cashless giving machine in church
- with a text message by texting KCM 3 to 70085 to donate £3
- online via the donate button on our webpage.
- Amazon Smile will donate a small percentage of your purchase cost to us - just go to www.smile.amazon.co.uk to sign up
- Old coins and notes if you find old coins or notes as you clear out your homes please do let Steve have them as the banks will still accept them.
- Remember us in your Will. Legacies are a tax efficient way of giving to the church. Please do think about us when making or revising your Will.

How to stay in touch

This notice sheet is emailed to all those on our mailing list and posted to those without email access if you would like to receive a paper copy of this notice sheet please contact the vicar.

We have a KCM Family WhatsApp group for information about the church and a KCM Jokes WhatsApp group to share the more light hearted jokes– if you would like to join either of these groups please contact the wardens to be added.
