Update from the PCC

The PCC agreed by majority vote at their meeting this week (20 October 2021) that we will return to two services at the beginning of Lent 2022, Sunday 6 March 2022, after the winter has passed.

We will continue with the alternate pattern of service on Sunday mornings, but on the third Sunday of the month we will have a 9.30 said Communion followed by Morning Worship without communion.

We will continue to sanitise hands and continue to wear a face covering when in the building.

We will continue to offer communion in one kind. The heating will be on but we will keep ventilating the building so please wrap up warm.

The MAPPa will be updated to reflect this – please do make sure that you are operating from the latest version.

Leading Your Church Into Growth (LYCIG)

Revd Atalie, Emma Kidd, Bill Simpson, Phil and Maureen Townsend attended a three day Leading Your Church Into Growth (LYCIG) conference over the weekend of 15-17 October 2021.

LYCIG has been going for over 30 years and has a proven track record of encouraging churches to look at how to grow their churches.

The first questions to ask ourselves are – Do we want to grow? Are we committed to taking steps to enable growth?

The course focused on 7 steps: Creating a prayerful culture of growth, Implementing the 4 P's, practising fruitful evangelism, Developing engaging worship, Becoming an inviting and welcoming church, Make a pathway for seekers to become disciples, Beginning a planned journey of growth.

The 4 P's are Prayer, Presence, Proclamation and Persuasion.

We at KCM (like most of the churches represented at the conference) are good at Presence – we have buildings and activities that are well used, but not so good at regularly Praying for growth, Proclaiming the gospel message in our communities and Persuading and disciplining people to become followers of Christ.

Our next steps as a church are:

- Praying We as a church will commit to praying for growth, this will be in our private devotions, in our intercessions in services and in November and December we will host a prayer breakfast on the 2nd Saturday of the month where we will specifically pray for growth.
- Persuading. We will host a Start course in the summer next year. This is a discipleship course (billed as pre- Alpha) for those who are seeking.
- Proclaiming. We will be intentional about making our worship better – set up a Morning Worship team.
- Presence We will organise welcoming training and look again at our buildings and how we welcome people in.
- Presence and Proclaiming. We will leaflet our local area with information about the big festivals but also with information about how to join the Start Course if they are enquiring.
- Proclaiming and Persuading. We will talk to those who we do already have contact with and invite them along to the start course and to our festival services.

God of Mission
Who alone brings growth to your Church,
Send your Holy Spirit to give
Vision to our planning,
Wisdom to our actions,
And power to our witness.
Help our church to grow in numbers,
In spiritual commitment to you,
And in service to our local community,
Through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen

Leading your Church into Growth

Readings for Sunday 24 October Last After Trinity

Collect

Blessed Lord,
who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning:
help us so to hear them,
to read, mark, learn and inwardly digest them
that, through patience, and the comfort of your holy word, we may embrace and for ever hold fast the hope of everlasting life,
which you have given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Job 42.1-6, 10-end

42 Then Job answered the Lord:
2 'I know that you can do all things,
and that no purpose of yours can be thwarted.
3 "Who is this that hides counsel without knowledge?"
Therefore I have uttered what I did not understand, things too wonderful for me, which I did not know.
4 "Hear, and I will speak;
I will question you, and you declare to me."

5 I had heard of you by the hearing of the ear,
but now my eye sees you;
6 therefore I despise myself,
and repent in dust and ashes.'

10 And the Lord restored the fortunes of Job when he had prayed for his friends; and the Lord gave Job twice as much as he had before. 11 Then there came to him all his brothers and sisters and all who had known him before, and they ate bread with him in his house; they showed him sympathy and comforted him for all the evil that the Lord had brought upon him; and each of them gave him a piece of money and a gold ring. 12 The Lord blessed the latter days of Job more than his beginning; and he had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand donkeys. 13 He also had seven sons and three daughters. 14 He named the first Jemimah, the second Keziah, and the third Keren-happuch. 15 In all the land there were no women so beautiful as Job's daughters; and their father gave them an inheritance along with their brothers. 16 After this Job lived for one hundred and forty years, and saw his children, and his children's children, four generations. 17 And Job died, old and full of days.

Psalm 34.1-8, 19-end

1 I will bless the Lord at all times;
his praise shall ever be in my mouth.
2 My soul shall glory in the Lord;
let the humble hear and be glad.
3 O magnify the Lord with me;
let us exalt his name together.
4 I sought the Lord and he answered me
and delivered me from all my fears.
5 Look upon him and be radiant and your faces shall not be ashamed.
6 This poor soul cried, and the Lord heard me
and saved me from all my troubles.
7 The angel of the Lord encamps around those who fear him
and delivers them.
8 O taste and see that the Lord is gracious;
blessed is the one who trusts in him.
19 Many are the troubles of the righteous;
from them all will the Lord deliver them.
20 He keeps all their bones,
so that not one of them is broken.

21 But evil shall slay the wicked
and those who hate the righteous will be condemned.
22 The Lord ransoms the life of his servants
and will condemn none who seek refuge in him.

Hebrews 7.23-end

23 Furthermore, the former priests were many in number, because they were prevented by death from continuing in office; 24 but he holds his priesthood permanently, because he continues for ever. 25 Consequently he is able for all time to save those who approach God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them.

26 For it was fitting that we should have such a high priest, holy, blameless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and exalted above the heavens. 27 Unlike the other high priests, he has no need to offer sacrifices day after day, first for his own sins, and then for those of the people; this he did once for all when he offered himself. 28 For the law appoints as high priests those who are subject to weakness, but the word of the oath, which came later than the law, appoints a Son who has been made perfect for ever.

Mark 10.46-end

46 They came to Jericho. As he and his disciples and a large crowd were leaving Jericho, Bartimaeus son of Timaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the roadside. 47 When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout out and say, 'Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!' 48 Many sternly ordered him to be quiet, but he cried out even more loudly, 'Son of David, have mercy on me!' 49 Jesus stood still and said, 'Call him here.' And they called the blind man, saying to him, 'Take heart; get up, he is calling you.' 50 So throwing off his cloak, he sprang up and came to Jesus. 51 Then Jesus said to him, 'What do you want me to do for you?' The blind man said to him, 'My teacher, let me see again.' 52 Jesus said to him, 'Go; your faith has made you well.' Immediately he regained his sight and followed him on the way.

Post Communion

God of all grace,
your Son Jesus Christ fed the hungry
with the bread of his life and the word of his kingdom:
renew your people with your heavenly grace,
and in all our weakness
sustain us by your true and living bread;

who is alive and reigns, now and for ever.

For further details please visit www.hertsmere.localplan.com . Comments can be received from Oct 11th. While we cannot probably reduce the number of houses we can campaign for the developments to have the right mix of housing, e.g. affordable v expensive, open spaces, “green” e.g. swift bricks, hedgehog highways, wildflower areas / verges for insects and seeds for birds. Have a look and provide constructive comments on the plan. If we don’t speak up, who will? John Rowley
