Collect

Lord of all power and might,
the author and giver of all good things:
graft in our hearts the love of your name,
increase in us true religion,
nourish us with all goodness,
and of your great mercy keep us in the same;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever

2 Samuel 6.1–5, 12b–19

¹David again gathered all the chosen men of Israel, thirty thousand. ²David and all the people with him set out and went from Baale-judah, to bring up from there the ark of God, which is called by the name of the Lord of hosts who is enthroned on the cherubim. ³They carried the ark of God on a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill. Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, were driving the new cart ⁴with the ark of God; and Ahio went in front of the ark. ⁵David and all the house of Israel were dancing before the Lord with all their might, with songs and lyres and harps and tambourines and castanets and cymbals.

¹²It was told King David, 'The Lord has blessed the household of Obed-edom and all that belongs to him, because of the ark of God.' So David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom to the city of David with rejoicing; ¹³and when those who bore the ark of the Lord had gone six paces, he sacrificed an ox and a fatling. ¹⁴David danced before the Lord with all his might; David was girded with a linen ephod. ¹⁵So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the Lord with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet.

¹⁶As the ark of the Lord came into the city of David, Michal daughter of Saul looked out of the window, and saw King David leaping and dancing before the Lord; and she despised him in her heart.

¹⁷They brought in the ark of the Lord, and set it in its place, inside the tent that David had pitched for it; and David offered burnt-offerings and offerings of well-being before the Lord.

¹⁸When David had finished offering the burnt-offerings and the offerings of well-being, he blessed the people in the name of the Lord of hosts, ¹⁹and distributed food among all the people, the whole multitude of Israel, both men and women, to each a cake of bread, a portion of meat, and a cake of raisins. Then all the people went back to their homes.

Psalm 24

- 1 The earth is the Lord's and all that fills it,
the compass of the world and all who dwell therein.
- 2 For he has founded it upon the seas
and set it firm upon the rivers of the deep.

- 3 'Who shall ascend the hill of the Lord,
or who can rise up in his holy place?'
- 4 'Those who have clean hands and a pure heart,
who have not lifted up their soul to an idol,
nor sworn an oath to a lie;
- 5 'They shall receive a blessing from the Lord,
a just reward from the God of their salvation.'
- 6 Such is the company of those who seek him,
of those who seek your face, O God of Jacob.
- 7 Lift up your heads, O gates;
be lifted up, you everlasting doors;
and the King of glory shall come in.
- 8 'Who is the King of glory?'
- 'The Lord, strong and mighty,
the Lord who is mighty in battle.'
- 9 Lift up your heads, O gates;
be lifted up, you everlasting doors;
and the King of glory shall come in.
- 10 'Who is this King of glory?'
- 'The Lord of hosts,
he is the King of glory.'

Ephesians 1.3–14

³Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, ⁴just as he chose us in Christ before the foundation of the world to be holy and blameless before him in love. ⁵He destined us for adoption as his children through Jesus Christ, according to the good pleasure of his will, ⁶to the praise of his glorious grace that he freely bestowed on us in the Beloved. ⁷In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace ⁸that he lavished on us. With all wisdom and insight ⁹he has made known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure that he set forth in Christ, ¹⁰as a plan for the fullness of time, to gather up all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth. ¹¹In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, ¹²so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. ¹³In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; ¹⁴this is the pledge of our inheritance towards redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory.

Mark 6.14–29

¹⁴King Herod heard of it, for Jesus' name had become known. Some were saying, 'John the baptizer has been raised from the dead; and for this reason these powers are at work in him.' ¹⁵But others said, 'It is Elijah.' And others said, 'It is a prophet, like one of the prophets of old.' ¹⁶But when Herod heard of it, he said, 'John, whom I beheaded, has been raised.' ¹⁷For Herod himself had sent men who arrested John, bound him, and put him in prison on account of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, because Herod had married her. ¹⁸For John had been telling Herod, 'It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife.' ¹⁹And Herodias had a grudge against him, and wanted to kill him. But she could not, ²⁰for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and he protected him. When he heard him, he was greatly perplexed; and yet he liked to listen to him. ²¹But an opportunity came when Herod on his birthday gave a banquet for his courtiers and officers and for the leaders of Galilee. ²²When his daughter Herodias came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his guests; and the king said to the girl, 'Ask me for whatever you wish, and I will give it.' ²³And he solemnly swore to her, 'Whatever you ask me, I will give you, even half of my kingdom.' ²⁴She went out and said to her mother, 'What should I ask for?' She replied, 'The head of John the baptizer.' ²⁵Immediately she rushed back to the king and requested, 'I want you to give me at once the head of John the Baptist on a platter.' ²⁶The king was deeply grieved; yet out of regard for his oaths and for the guests, he did not want to refuse her. ²⁷Immediately the king sent a soldier of the guard with orders to bring John's head. He went and beheaded him in the prison, ²⁸brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl. Then the girl gave it to her mother. ²⁹When his disciples heard about it, they came and took his body, and laid it in a tomb.

Post Communion

Lord God, whose Son is the true vine and the source of life,
ever giving himself that the world may live:
may we so receive within ourselves the power of his death and passion that, in his saving cup, we may share his glory and be made perfect in his love;
for he is alive and reigns, now and for ever.

Genesis 1.1-31 (Morning Worship)

In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. The earth had no shape and was empty. Darkness covered the water on the earth and the Spirit of God hovered over the waters. And God said 'Let there be light!' And there was light. God separated the light from the darkness. He called the light day and the darkness He called night. This was the first day of the creation. Then God made a space between the waters on earth and the waters of the heavens. God called the space Sky. This was the second day of the creation. Then God separated the land and the sea. He spoke and grass, trees, fruit, flowers and plants were all created. God saw it was all good. This then was the third day of the creation. Then God spoke again and He created the sun to give light in the day and the moon to give light in the evening. He also made all the stars. This was the fourth day of the creation. Next God created every kind of creature that swims in the sea like the great whales and all those animals that live in the waters. And God made every kind of bird to fill the sky and fly all over the earth. This was the fifth day of the creation. Then God spoke again and created all kinds of great cattle and beasts to roam the earth. And He made those animals that creep along the ground. God saw that all He had made was good. Finally God made man and woman in His image and likeness. He gave them rule over all of His creation. They were to take care of all the animals and the plants and flowers. God saw that all He had made was very good. This was the sixth day of the creation. On the seventh day God rested.

Invitations from Father Shaun for events on 13 and 14 July

Bethlehem Olivewood - a group representing Christians from the Holy Land will be visiting Our Lady & St Vincent Church in Mutton Lane to sell olive wood objects which have been carved from Olive Wood in the Holy Land. With the present situation, their traditional employment as guides and artisans has suffered greatly, as all pilgrimages have been cancelled due to the unsafe situation. Selling their carvings and other goods, provides alternative employment for Christian families in the Holy Land. They will be in the narthex of OLASV from 4pm on Saturday 13 July and all day on Sunday 14 July. Please do come and support them.

Choral Vespers - the church choir will be singing Vespers to mark the Feast of St Benedict earlier in the week. Mark Guerin - choirmaster - will be delighted to welcome other singers to join in. Music will include Magnificat Stanford in Bflat and Mozart Veni Sancte Spiritus. Please contact him directly (markdguerin66@googlemail.com) for details of music and rehearsals.

Prayer – Week beginning 14 July

We invite you to pray on a Wednesday morning, no matter where you are, for our community, our town and the wellbeing of all.

Please pray for ALL members of our community, especially: for those who serve in local government.

Those who live in: Berkeley Close, Borndene, Borough Way.

The recently departed: and all who have died recently.

Anniversary of death: Irene Beale, Olive Fruin, Frank Rowley, Roy Barker and all whose anniversary falls at this time.

If you or someone you know is in need of prayer please contact the ministry team to have a chat or ask to speak to one of the pastoral team who will be happy to support you. The prayer list is published each week. The list is being reviewed, if your name, or the name of a loved one is on the list, please let us know you would like it to remain.

People can be added, moved or removed as required. If you are not on the list and would like to be added, or if you or a loved one are, but feel that this is no longer needed, please do let the clergy know.

In line with the Parish Prayer Policy, please ensure that you have permission from the person whose name you wish to add to the list.

Please email any requests for names to be added to the office (office@kcm-church.org.uk) no later than 5pm on a Wednesday.

If you wish to see a copy of the Parish Prayer Policy then please contact the office.

Thank you for all your boxes for junk modelling, we have what we need.

We are now collecting biscuits for break times – there is a box at the back of church for donations by Friday 19th July.

Please do pray for all those involved in the planning and running of the club.

Summer Joint Services

From Sunday 28 July – Sunday 1 Sept there will be one joint service each Sunday at 1030.

MAPPA. The MAPPA for August was emailed out last week. Please do check sooner rather than later, that you are able to do the tasks you have been allocated. If you are unavailable to make your allotted day, then please will you arrange to swap with someone else and then let Imogen know by email as she is not part of the WhatsApp group. If you have not received the MAPPA and were expecting to, then please let Imogen know. Spare copies are available at the back of the church.

Watering. The vegetables in the children's grow you own garden are growing nicely. If you are passing the garden and are able to, please can you water the trough. In hot weather they need watering every day.
Thank you Nikki

Sunflowers. Remember the seeds that were given out at Easter? Are yours growing? Please email photos of your sunflowers to Imogen (office@kcm-church.org.uk) so we can share with each other how they are all coming along.

These ones in Helen's garden have now flowered and the middle one is over 6ft.

Bishop of St Alban's open garden. Every Sunday from now until 11 August, Bishop Alan is opening his garden to raise funds for the Beds and Herts Historic Trust. The garden is open 2-4pm and costs £5 per person (children are free). See poster on back page for further information.

Stamps. Please save your postage stamps for SPANA - a charity which provides treatment for essential working animals in poorer countries. There is a box at the back of church, please leave a border of 1cm. round the stamp.
Thank you – Joy

Eco Tip

Use LED lighting throughout your home.

How to access services at KCM

Sunday mornings go to the church website www.kcm-church.org.uk and click on the link on that page it will take you to Facebook where you will be able to click on the LIVE streaming or watch the services from previous weeks.

If you are in church, please be aware that services are live streamed and that you may like to sit nearer the back if you do not wish to be on camera.

Supporting the work and mission of this church

The Church of King Charles the Martyr provides a spiritual focus and outstanding facilities for the local community. It is OUR church and like all charities, is dependent on the generosity of its members, the local community and others. The church and halls cost us over £3000 a week to run and this isn't possible without your generosity.

If you would like to support the work of the Church of King Charles the Martyr, you can do this either as a one off or by joining our regular giving scheme please speak to our Treasurer to set up regular giving to help us plan

- by joining the Parish Giving Scheme Potters Bar King Charles - Parish Giving Scheme
- with the cashless giving machine in church or online on our webpage.
- Remember us in your Will. Legacies are a tax efficient way of giving to the church. Please do think about us when making or revising your Will.

How to stay in touch

This notice sheet is posted on our website each week, emailed to all those on our mailing list and posted to those without email access. If you would like to receive a paper copy of this notice sheet please contact the office.

The Church office is staffed and open to the public 9am - 12noon Monday, Tuesday & Thursday. Please do call ahead to ensure that someone will be available to help you. Outside of these hours email and calls are monitored but please be aware it may take a few days for us to get back to you.

We have a KCM Family WhatsApp group for information about the church and a KCM Jokes WhatsApp group to share the more light hearted jokes – if you would like to join these groups please contact the wardens to be added.
