Epiphany 3

Collect

God of all mercy,
your Son proclaimed good news to the poor,
release to the captives,
and freedom to the oppressed:
anoint us with your Holy Spirit and set all your people free to praise you in Christ our Lord.

I Corinthians 1.10–18 – page 1144

Matthew 4.12–23 – page 968

Post Communion

Lord God, the source of truth and love,
keep us faithful to the apostles' teaching and fellowship,
united in prayer and the breaking of bread,
and one in joy and simplicity of heart,
in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Potters Bar Food Bank

Don't forget that as a church we collect for the foodbank in the boxes outside the office. January can be a difficult month for people, so please pick up a few extra bits when you are shopping and donate them.

Musings from the vicarage

I don't know about you, but David really made me think with his sermon last week about why we come to church. I know now that I come because I am your vicar, but how did going to church first become an important part of my life.

Originally, I went because I was taken by my parents. They were founder members of Billericay Baptist Church having both been bought up attending Potters Bar Baptst Church. They took me to be dedicated when I was one week old, and I have probably gone to church nearly every Sunday since. My Dad was the organist, and some of my earliest memories of church are sitting on a little wooden chair next to the organ while he played. Then, at the appropriate time in the service, Miss Rotham would come and get me and take me to Sunday School, and then return me to the chair at the end! Those who work with children in our church are so vital – whether that is in Children's clubs, Messy Church, Charlies Angels or just sitting in the children's corner on a Sunday morning looking after the little ones so that parents can engage more with the service – as they will be the Miss Rothams that the children of this church remember in years to come when they are writing musings from their vicarages!

One Summer, during a Holiday Bible Club, I realised for the first time that Jesus had died because he loved me as an individual as well as everyone else and so on 30 August 1976, I gave my life to him. I will always be grateful to Bob Pritchard for preaching in such a way that my life was changed for ever. I am sure this is one of the reasons why I am passionate about Holiday Clubs as they sow seeds in lives that can never be unsewn. Do be praying for the Holiday Club that is planned for this summer that it will change the lives of children and young people in this town and will enable them to encounter Jesus.

As I got older, I became very involved in Girls Brigade (we didn't have Brownies and Guides at the church much to my Mum's horror, having always been a guider) and this shaped much of my faith. Pamela Goodeve and June Singleton as officers, became role models of Christian women for me and I still often think of Pamela, who sadly died a few years ago, when I go out in shoes that could really do with a clean! She said that when she met a person, their shoes were the first thing she looked at as it told you a lot about how much care they took over their appearance! The leaders of uniformed organisations are very special people, and we should cherish them and encourage them in all that they do. What a privilege it is for us that they still want to hold regular parade services as this is not the case everywhere. We all need to welcome our uniformed organisation and nurture our relationship with them, showing young people that church is an enjoyable part of the week.

I could go on, but that will have to wait for another time as I am running out of space, but as I have pondered on my initial engagement with Church this week, I have noticed how often it is the people who I have met, who have encouraged me, and who have shown by the example of their lives that has kept me going to church on a regular basis. They have been my Andrews – the ones who have brought me to Jesus, whether they realise it or not, so that I can hear Jesus say to me, 'Come and see' and be encouraged to follow him wherever he leads.

Revd Emma

Arrangements are well underway for the celebrations in London on Saturday 31 January 2025. There will be a service at 1100 at the Priory Church of St Bartholomew the Great, West Smithfield EC1A 9DS, and then, following the Royal Toast, the Potters Bar contingency will be heading to a nearby restaurant for lunch. The former Bishop of Hertford, and current Bishop of Bath and Wells, will be preaching at the service. We would love for lots of our congregation to join us. I have said that we will have a stall on the day and it would also be good to take part in the procession. Please let me know if you are Safeguarding Awareness. Last Monday (19th January) has the name blue Monday because it is considered to be the most depressing day of the year! We are reminded that: ‘Whether or not one day can be objectively “bluer” than another, Blue Monday serves as a nudge to take mental health seriously. Depression, anxiety, and burnout don’t follow the calendar – but the struggles many face during winter are real. For some, it’s seasonal affective disorder (SAD). For others, it’s financial stress, social isolation, or simply the letdown after the holidays. Blue Monday isn’t about labelling a bad day – it’s about acknowledging that emotional lows deserve attention. It opens the door for meaningful support and reminds us to ask, listen, and act with empathy’. That’s something we need far beyond January.

EcoTip Epiphany 3: make recycling easier in your home by having a separate paper/cardboard bin upstairs or in your bathroom for packaging and insides of toilet rolls and other paper products. Remember, the blue paper towel in our church kitchen cannot be recycled!

Supporting the work and mission of this church

The Church of King Charles the Martyr provides a spiritual focus and outstanding facilities for the local community. It is OUR church and like all charities is dependent on the generosity of its members, the local community, and others to make it prosper.

The church and halls cost us over £3000 a week to run and this isn’t possible without your generosity.

If you would like to support the work of the Church of King Charles the Martyr, you can do this either as a one off or by joining our regular giving scheme please speak to our Treasurer to set up regular giving to help us plan

- by joining the Parish Giving Scheme Potters Bar King Charles - Parish Giving Scheme
