Musings from the vicarage

Benjamin Franklin said that there are only two certainties in life – death and taxes! For many of us, we regularly think about our taxes, especially at this time of year when tax returns are due, but how often do we think about our death, and in particular planning for our funeral.

As you will know, today as a church we, with her family, entrust our sister Janice Lacey to God. Janice was a faithful member of KCM, involved since she joined the church, having moved to Potters Bar in 1975, with so many different aspects of KCM's life. She was on the cleaning and cake rotas; was treasurer of the Mothers Union and chair of the Ladies club; was on church social committee and in charge of the Easter garden for many years.

Planning her funeral with her daughters has been a joy and we are certain that we are providing the funeral that she wanted, why, because she provided us with such comprehensive instructions via a letter that she wrote to her daughter in 2005. In this letter she outlined the hymns, the music she wanted played, poems and liturgical items that she wanted included and with that lovely twinkle in her eye told us exactly what we were not to do. For example, she wants played the whole, not a quarter, not a half of the pieces of music she has chosen for the beginning and end of the service.

I wonder what hymns you would choose for your funeral? I know, for example, that one of the hymns my dad wants is 'Up from the grave he arose' which I am sure says something about both his faith and his sense of humour! However, I don't know what music he would like at the beginning or the end, or even what his favourite bible verse is. I do know that my dad wants to be cremated unlike my mother who was insistent that she should be buried, which she was.

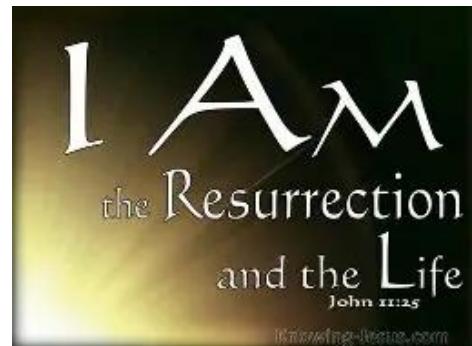

And I also know, as I told Simon the other week after he had played it so beautifully at David Burrows funeral, that I want the Hallelujah chorus played at my funeral, along with the hymn 'Great is thy faithfulness' because that is what God has been to me time and time again throughout my life!

It is never too early to plan your funeral, and it is not a macabre thing to think about because when the time comes it will help your family immensely. If you would like me to support you in doing this, please get in contact as it would be a pleasure and a privilege to do so.

And while we are on the subject, I would urge you to think very carefully before deciding to have a direct cremation, something that we are seeing advertised a lot at the present time.

A direct cremation, for anyone who is unsure what it is, is a simple unattended cremation that occurs without a formal funeral service and although it is possibly cheaper, it does not allow those whom you have left behind to say goodbye and to have closure.

As Christians, we believe that death is not the end because Jesus died on the cross and rose again so that we can be reconciled with God and spend eternity with him. This is our hope. Janice and all those who have gone before us, are part of the cloud of witnesses, which is referred to in the letter to the Hebrews, who are cheering us on as we run the race that has been set for us, and one day we believe we will see them again and what a glorious day that will be because as my grandmother always said, and which was the theme of her funeral, 'the best is yet to come'.

Revd Emma

We are hoping to receive a grant of £1500 to help us to update and buy new toys for the group. They are a lovely group and the leaders do a fantastic job and they really deserve this recognition. Tell your friends and spread the word. You can even make a video like mine Tesco Stronger Starts to share on social media if you go to Tesco Stronger Starts and search for King Charles the Martyr.

Snowdrop Garden Open Days — in Support of the Beds & Herts Historic Churches Trust

We are pleased to share that the Bishop of St Albans' Garden will open to visitors this February, offering a much-loved chance to enjoy God's creation in its early spring beauty. This year's openings may be the last time the garden is made accessible to the public, making the occasion especially meaningful.

Thousands of snowdrops and other early bulbs will be in bloom, creating a peaceful, uplifting place to wander and reflect. All proceeds will go directly to the Beds and Herts Historic Churches Trust, which helps fund essential repairs to historic churches across Bedfordshire and Hertfordshire.

Bishop Richard, Acting Bishop of St Albans, writes:

"This is a lovely way to enjoy the first signs of spring while supporting an important cause. We're proud to contribute to preserving the unique heritage of our local churches."

Open Garden Dates

Abbey Gate House, Abbey Mill Lane, St Albans AL3 4HD

- Saturday 14 February
- Sunday 15 February
- Saturday 21 February
- Sunday 22 February

All are warmly invited to visit the garden—perhaps for the final time as we are not sure if the new Bishop will continue to allow the garden to be opened to the public—enjoy its seasonal beauty and support the preservation of our cherished church buildings.
